6.1.2 to consider the annual financial reports, report of the Chief Executive Officer and the auditor's report;
6.1.3 to declare the result of the election of the President and Elected Board Members;
6.1.4 to appoint an auditor, if necessary; and
6.1.5 to transact any other business which ought to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting of which notice has been given in the notice of meeting.

6.2 Quorum at a general meeting

6.2.1 Business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and while business is being conducted.

6.2.2 Except as otherwise set out in this Constitution, 50 Fellows present in person and entitled to vote at a general meeting is a quorum.

6.2.3 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for a general meeting, or a longer period allowed by the Chairperson, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to another day and at another time and place determined by the Chairperson.

6.2.4 At an adjourned meeting, if a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

6.2.5 Members may participate in any meeting remotely by electronic means permitted under the Act.

6.3 Chairperson

6.3.1 A general meeting shall be chaired by:

(a) the Chairperson; or

(b) if the Chairperson is absent or unable or unwilling to act, a member of the Board elected by the Board members present.

6.3.2 Subject to this Constitution, the Chairperson's ruling on all matters relating to the order of business and the procedure and conduct of a general meeting (including any poll or ballot) is final and no motion of dissent from a ruling of the Chairperson may be moved.

6.4 Adjournment of meetings

6.4.1 The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time and to another place.

6.4.3 When a meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for 1 month or more.

6.5 Voting

6.5.1 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided on a show of hands unless a ballot is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded in accordance with clause 6.6.2.

6.5.5 If a ballot is not duly demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson that on a show of hands a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect is made in the book containing the minutes of the general meeting of members is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

6.6.2 A ballot may be demanded by:

(a) the Chairperson; or

The demand for a ballot may be withdrawn.

6.6.3 The demand for a ballot does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which the ballot is demanded.

6.6.4 If a ballot is duly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and at such time as the Chairperson directs. The result of the ballot is the resolution of the meeting on the question concerned.

6.7 Proxies

6.7.1 A document appointing a proxy by a Fellow (which for the purposes of this Constitution includes a power of attorney of a Fellow appointing another Fellow to vote on the first mentioned Fellow’s behalf) may be in the form issued with the notice of the meeting or in a common or usual form approved by the Board.

6.7.2 Only a Fellow may be appointed as a proxy.

6.7.3 A document appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where the document so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution other than as specified in the document (if any).

6.7.4 The document appointing a proxy and any power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the proxy is signed (or a copy of that power or authority certified to be a true copy by a legal practitioner or justice of the peace) must be given (and may be given by facsimile) to the Office, or at another place specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting.

6.7.5 A vote given in accordance with the terms of a document appointing a proxy is valid despite the occurrence of any one or more of the following events if no notice in writing of any of those events has been received at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the document is used:

(a) the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal; or

(b) the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed; or
